Primary Care Networks

Background
The Ministry of Health is committed to providing a high-quality, accessible, and sustainable health care system for all British Columbians. This commitment is reflected in the province's health care strategy, which outlines the vision for the future of the health care system.

Purpose
The purpose of this document is to provide a clear and concise overview of the Primary Care Networks (PCNs) and their role in the health care system. This document is intended for use by all PCN members and stakeholders.

Objectives
The objectives of this document are to: 1. Provide a clear and concise overview of the PCNs and their role in the health care system. 2. Define the PCN and its components. 3. Describe the PCN's role in the health care system.

Scope
This document applies to all PCN members and stakeholders. It is intended to provide a clear and concise overview of the PCNs and their role in the health care system. It is not intended to provide a detailed description of the PCN's operations or governance.

Version
This document is the first version of the PCN Outline Attributes. It was developed in consultation with PCN members and stakeholders.
