Dr. Leta Burechailo

Family Physician
CCFP

Leta is a family physician, outdoor enthusiast, soccer mom, mountain biker, and perogy maker. Leta started her family medicine career in 2002 in the wilds of Northern Ontario. From BC originally, Leta and her partner Chris Morwood settled on Powell River as the place to set roots and raise their children. She divides her physician work between family practice, the Public Health Unit's Youth Clinic, and community health literacy projects.

Dr. David May

Family Physician
CCFP

David has been a family doctor for 24 years. His areas of focus are palliative care and pain management, mental health, and anesthesia. David has designed a chronic pain module and teaches that module throughout BC. David is an avid gardener, loves fly-fishing, cooking locally grown food, and supporting local producers. He also enjoys a glass of wine from time to time.

Dr. Chris Morwood

Family Physician CCFP

Chris has practiced family medicine in Powell River for 10 years. He and his partner Leta moved back to the Coast for the medical community and lifestyle. As a family physician, Chris focuses on prevention and encouraging healthy habits early in life. An avid cyclist, Chris has spearheaded projects for introducing bike lanes, teaching school-age kids cycling and organizing active transportation events in the community.
